

Wisconsin's No-Call List is wonderful. The federal law should be just like Wisconsin's because Wisconsin's list works! It is so good to not be hassled by calls like we used to in the very few hours we have after long workdays. We are able to mentally recharge and be ready for a productive day and also spend some uninterrupted family time without those worthless calls. Don't spoil it. Our lawmakers did a good thing!